Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to Jesse & Karen, Charles & Marian and Paolo & Vicki for sharing their marriage testimonies with us all at our masses last weekend. They touched the hearts of many! May God bless all our married couples with renewed hope, joy and faith on a daily basis.

On behalf of Most Precious Blood Parish, I wish to thank Marina Mazzorini for her years of service as our Parish Webmaster. She has done a tremendous job and we want her to know how grateful we all are to her for her many hours of volunteer given to this ministry. I am grateful and pleased that Laney McVeity responded to our invitation to replace Marina as our new Parish Webmaster. Welcome Laney! Thank you!

Thank you to all who came out to our NET Youth Rally last Monday night! It was an amazing evening that left everyone inspired and uplifted in their faith journey. I am so please to have met the NET encounter #2 team and they have filled me with so much hope for our young people and the future of our church. This Thursday, Feb. 23rd is our first gathering for all families and children who are preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation & Eucharist for this year. This gathering will run from 6:15-7:30pm. The children who will be making their sacrament will be receiving their first lesson this night so it is very important that they are present. All information will be given to the parents this night too. If you have any other questions please contact Christine at ccoyle@dol.ca.

Co-op Student in the “House”

I am very excited to announce that I will be having my first co-op student shadowing me for the next few months. Tabatha Morin from Holy Names High School is very interested in Youth Ministry, she has been a youth leader here at our parish for over 3 years now, and is looking forward to seeing the ins and outs of parish life, with focus on Youth Ministry. So, if you see a young lady during the week hanging around the church make sure to welcome her to the team!

If your child has made their First Communion and has shown interest in becoming an altar server we will be having a training session on Monday, March 13th from 6:30-7:30pm. Please let Christine and Pat know that your child will be there for the training by emailing her at ccoyle@dol.ca.
