Farewell Father Charles.

Father Charles has brought much joy sharing his priestly ministry within the life of our parishes over the past 6 months. He has been a tremendous support to me with the many transitions that have taken place. He is a Holy priest and will be missed by all. We wish him God's blessings as he begins to serve the parishes in St. Thomas and Aylmer. We also pray that he will do well in his studies as he prepares to begin his studies at Huron College in London. Thank you Father Charles! We Love you!
Father Greg
