Dear Parishioners of Most Precious Blood Parish,

This week we kick off another 5 great days of Vacation Bible School, filled with fun, laughter and study. We welcome the many children who have registered this year.

May God Bless the many volunteers who will come out this week to support Christine in her mission to reach out and evangelize to our young parishioners.

Interested in becoming a member of the Roman Catholic Church? Do you know someone who would like to?

Preparations are now being made for the next RCIA (Rite of Christians Initiation of Adults) 2015-2016.

For more information, please contact myself, Father Greg,
at my office 519-948-4133.

Congratulations to our Knights of Columbus
Executive who were installed this past Tuesday evening for their fraternal year 2015-2016. Our parish is blessed to have so many committed and devoted men and their families who give so much time and energy to the wonderful ministry of our Council.

Kindly keep Deacon Frank in your daily prayers as he will be on retreat August 2nd - 7th. May his time of prayer and reflection be a time of relaxation and inspiration.

Wishing you all a safe and enjoyable summer:
Father Greg

Steubenville High School Conference 2015 "Limitless"

Testimony by Angelika Roti

It was my first time going to Steubenville, and I really enjoyed my experience. The people were very nice and I made new friends. I liked how it was a fun way to discover and be involved in my faith with all the activities, and I learned a lot from the very enthusiastic speakers. It was a judgment free zone, and very comfortable settings, knowing the other 2000 people were teenagers just like me, and the leaders were a help with knowing where to be and when. The spare time we had to wander freely between activities was good bonding time with friends, as well as the serious group talks where everyone could be open and talk about stuff that was going on in their life. What really touched me was the amount of magic in the whole room during adoration, people were laughing, crying, strangers were hugging and comforting each other, loving their neighbor as god tells us we should do, everyone was brought together by their faith and God was there the whole time sharing it with us. The energy, love, and inspiration in the room made people very emotional because some have been going through a very tough time and for the first time in a long time or maybe ever, they were touched by God. I know I'm going again next year to continue the journey of my faith, and I recommend this to anyone who can grab this amazing opportunity, because everyone can get something out of it, whether it's the fun, the faith, the food, or anything in between. Go for it. :)

"Faith Giants" Bible Summer Camp is finally here!!!

35 children and 27 leaders will be taking part in one of the best bible camps in the city this coming week. Everyone will be learning all about our church's "Faith Giants"... the saints. They will also participate in fun interactive activities that will help them become a living "Faith Giant". There will be crafts, games, snacks, and a field trip for the day on Wednesday, a fun group dance, water games, discussions, prayers, a family bbq and more! Please keep us in your prayers this coming week. My prayer is that the children and families that are joining us will come to camp with an open heart & mind, and that through the camp will grow together to become "Faith Giants" in their homes.

“Faith Giants” Bible Leader Training

This past week 23 bible camp leaders came together Tuesday until Friday to prepare our team for the upcoming Bible Camp. We prayed together, we played together, we laughed together, and we shared faith together. We learned all about what the church teaches on the saints and how we are all called to be holy- set a part from the world and to make a difference. I always come away from these experiences feeling so blessed to be among so many of our future church leaders and saints!
