Dear Parishioners,

A brief note about our new priest, Father David Johnston, who will arrive on Monday, July 2nd.

Originally from Port Lambton, Father David grew up the third of four children. After completing high school, he studied engineering at the University of Western Ontario. It was during this time that his faith was deepened and he began to realize that God was calling him to the priesthood. Leaving behind these studies, he entered St. Peter's Seminary to study, pray and discern for the next seven years. Fr. David was ordained a transitional deacon on June 1, 2015 and a priest on April 23rd, 2016. He enjoys good food, as well as keeping physically active. Fr. David was assigned to Sarnia for the past two years and is excited to serve in Windsor.

On a personal note, Fr. David was my seminarian for 5 years while I was the pastor of Wallaceburg and Port Lambton. I look forward to sharing my priestly ministry with Father David and I know everyone will enjoy him as much as we have all enjoyed Father Charles.

By this Friday, school children and teens from all parts of Windsor will be finished the school year. The start of summer is a happy time for students, teachers and support staff. Let's put ourselves in the hands of our loving God and pray together that He will bless all of us and our families during the wonderful months of summer. God Bless,
Father Greg
