*He is Risen
As he had said*

It is with deep joy that we greet this new day. Jesus is risen! From the shame and humiliation, the pain of abandonment, Jesus has shown us that His Father's love is just as he proclaimed; All powerful and all loving.

Our joy today is that there is nothing that we can experience that our Savior has yet to experience. He has embraced everything about our human condition. Through his cross he has taught us to hope for redemption.

Therefore we do not have any right to be ashamed of our weaknesses or sufferings for it is in the wounds of our lives that we meet and encounter the beautiful savior who tends to us through the saving balm of his Holy Spirit.

Have courage and do not be afraid there is no darkness He cannot overcome.

Congratulations to our new Catholic Christians:

Arlinda Abazi, Ken Acton, Romeo Agius, Madyson Butler, Nicole Iati, Nirvanie Jankie, Shivranie Jankie, Crystal Rose John, Deborah John, Nalima John, Marquise Markiewicz, Christine Normandeau, Seth Normandeau, Kyle O'Connor, Kiara Primeau-Day, Xavier Primeau-Day, Joshua Ristanovic, Ryan Ristanovic, Lisa Roehler, Kiara Roncone, Bob Webster, Scott Webster

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CHILDREN OF RCIC

Congratulations to Ryan, Marquee, Seth, Kiara, Xavier and Kyle who have been journeying with Mrs. Nicole & Ms. Karen every Wednesday; learning about the Catholic faith. They are now Baptized and in Full communion. These young people have been an inspiration to not only to me but the teachers. Their excitement to receive the Sacraments and all their questions at the meetings really made this journey an adventure and lots of fun. Special thank you to Nicole Danby & Karen Remillong for their amazing work with this group of children; your faith in the church and in teaching others about our faith is awesome!
