From The Pastor's Pen

On behalf of our Parish Social Justice Committee, I invite everyone to read and ponder the enclosed flyer in today's church bulletin entitled: Key Principles of Catholic Social Teaching. It is the intentions of the Social Justice Committee to bring more of an awareness to all of God's people when pertaining to fairness and mutual obligation in society; that we are responsible for one another, and that we should ensure that all have equal chances to succeed in life.

I ask that you kindly keep in your prayers all of our grade 8 students as they celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation this week in preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation on November 25th.

Last weekend we had another car broken into during the 9:30 a.m. Mass. As we move forward to better parking security during Mass times, I once again ask, please do not leave any money, valuables, or personal belongings in your car at any time.

Next weekend Deacon Frank will be preaching at all Sunday masses. Today, we congratulate him on his 1st anniversary of Ordination to the Diaconate. We are blessed to have Deacon Frank on board! May God continue to bless Deacon Frank, his wife Doris and the Lepain family.

God Bless,
Father Greg

CHURCH CHUCKLE

A police recruit was asked during the exam, "What would you do if you had to arrest your own mother?" He answered, "Call for backup."

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "Why is the bride dressed in white?" The mother replied, "Because white is the color of happiness and today is the happiest day of her life." The child thought about this for a moment then said, "So why is the groom wearing black?"
