“What does it mean to be anointed?”

To be anointed is to be set apart for God, to be chosen by God for a special mission. God chose YOU from the beginning. Just as God chose Jeremiah, and Joshua, Moses and Abraham, He is choosing YOU again today.

Congratulations Confirmation Students & Families

It is with tremendous joy that I can congratulate this awesome group of young people who have gone through the Confirmation program. They are an amazing group. They shared, they laughed, they cried and they give the service their all! We will definitely miss them on Tuesday nights. There are always things happening here at MPB to get the young people more involved. Don't let the gifts they just received from the Holy Spirit go unopened. Thank you to the amazing Confirmation Catechists- Barb, Christine, Doris, Kris, Jenna, Caitlyn, Alex, Bob, Steve & Sue. I could not of done anything without your awesome commitment to the students. Thank you for your time, energy, patience and love for Jesus. Thank you to Rose & Mike Ledingham who helped with Adoration each week for the young people. This gave them a chance to be quiet with Jesus and I feel strengthen them and helped them feel at peace. Our parish is so blessed to have you and your choir.
