Dear Parishioners,

November is traditionally the month of remembrance and prayers for the dead- for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Once again, the "Book of Life" will be displayed in our church for parishioners to place the names of loved ones who have passed away. All inscribed names will be remembered at all Masses throughout the month of November.

Together, let us prayerfully remember our family members, friends and benefactor's who have died, and entrust them to the loving mercy of our loving God. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine on them.
Amen.

The Season of Advent is fast approaching!

This year the Parish would like to give each family a copy of The Little Blue Book to pray daily during Advent. We have ordered 300 books, one per family. Each day during Advent, we are invited to pray the Six-minute reflections on the Infancy Narrative of St. Luke in preparation for Christmas.

These books will be made available next weekend after all Masses.

Thank you to Paolo Collavino and his staff for grinding our entrance walkways to the Church making the entrances more safe and user friendly.

Father Greg

Parish Pastoral Council Update

The selection process for new members of the Parish Pastoral Council is participatory.

All parishioners from Most Precious Blood are invited to let their voices be heard by submitting names of those members of the parish community who possess the qualities for the ministry of leadership. Many thanks to all who completed and returned the nomination form with the names of potential candidates for our PPC. The final day to drop off a nomination form is on Tuesday, Nov. 8th at 4pm in the church office. All those who have been nominated will be contacted and given further instructions. Please continue to pray for this process of discernment.

CHURCH CHUCKLE

Shampooing her 4-year-old son, Mom noticed his hair growing so fast he'd soon need it cut.

He replied,
"Maybe we shouldn't water it so much."

OFFERTORY GIFTS
