Dear Parishioners,

I wish to inform all of you that with my added responsibilities to St. Cyril & Methodius Parish I may not be able to return a phone call or respond to an e-mail as quick as I used to. Over the next several weeks I will be spending time at the office at St. Cyril & Methodius sharing my ministry with their needs and requests. I know some feel that I have not returned their calls fast enough but I ask that patience becomes a greater virtue given my present responsibilities both at Most Precious Blood and St. Cyril Methodius.

People have been asking when I will be celebrating Mass at St. Cyril Methodius and Most Precious Blood. Presently, there is no schedule. As part of my meetings this will be discussed and planned and all parishioners will be notified.

Thank you for all your prayers and support through these transitional times within our Church.

This past week our Diocesan Church lost a great man who made such a difference in the lives of all our Diocesan permanent deacons, especially Deacon Frank and soon to be Deacon Dan. Deacon John Vallely passed away at the young age of 70 years. Deacon John oversaw the Diocesan Formation and Study program for the Permanent Diaconate. He served our Diocesan Church well and we pray that he rests in peace in the Eternal Embrace of God our Father.

Father Greg
