Jaclyn's 2 Updates from NET Canada

1) Today is September 16th and it's our last official day of regular training at Circle Square Ranch! Tomorrow we leave to start our separate ministry training. I'll be going into "Encounter" training. We will also be heading to our first set of host homes tomorrow! That should be fun. Last night we had a forgiveness men's and women's liturgy session. It started with the women reciting the list of things we have done wrong to men that we created during women's session and then the men did the same thing. But it was just one women and one man saying it to each other. They were representing everyone. Then the men and women split up and each had a mass separately. The women had a candlelight mass and we received flower crowns and everything. At the end of the mass, the women all shared the letters we wrote to our future sisterhoods to our sisterhoods! That was really beautiful and touching. Then we finished off the night with a large group sharing and praise and worship! The staff also honoured us and served us dinner and we all got dressed up, it was really nice!

Hey everyone!

2) I am now back in Ottawa! I am staying in a host home about 10min from the NET office! The family is super nice! It's just a husband and wife and they have their niece and nephew staying with them because they go to university in Ottawa. We spent the whole evening with them and ate dinner with them. Our host mom made is cookies and they are so good. For dinner we had stew and salad. I got to have a normal shower which was great and I'll get to sleep in a bed for 2 weeks!

I am staying in this host home with Natalie, Beth and Samara from my team! I love you all ♥
