FAITH, REASON & BEAUTY - the False, Bad, and Ugly: Looking for Faith and Beauty in Movies and Other Dark Mirrors

Thursday, January 26 – 7:00- 9:00 p.m.

Newman Centre Catholic Mission, 89 St. George St.

In this lecture, Professor Randy Boyagoda (English Department) argues that the great interest, in recent years, in horror movies is indicative of a suppressed but enduring desire for faith and beauty. Situating his discussion in the context of the Catholic intellectual tradition, Professor Boyagoda makes a case for how best to cultivate an openness to the transcendent in mundane times. Please contact the Newman Centre U of T by phone 416-979-2468 or email:

A WORD FROM ST FRANCIS DE SALES

For those who are anxious, to calm our weary hearts.
Do not look forward in fear to the changes in life; rather, look to them with full hope that as they arise, God, whose very own you are, will lead you safely through all things; and when you cannot stand it, God will carry you in His arms. Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same understanding Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day. He will either shield you from suffering, or will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations.
