LAST CALL - OFFERTORY ENVELOPES FOR 2012

Please pick up the box that has your name on it, or an unassigned box. Do not pick up a box of envelopes that has someone else's name on it, even if you think the number belongs to you! Also, kindly put your name and address on the first few envelopes so that we can make sure that our database is up to date.

ORATORY MARRIAGE PREPARATION COURSE

Our marriage course will begin on Monday, February 6, at 7:30 p.m. at Holy Family and run for seven consecutive Monday nights. Cost is $100 per couple for parishioners and $150 for those getting married elsewhere. No preregistration. Just show up at the first class a few minutes early. This is the only course through our parishes in 2012. Couples who are planning to get married are reminded to contact one of the priests as soon as possible.

VOCATION SEEDS

The call of the disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciples' response, which was immediate and complete; they leave everything and follow Jesus. Can we do less if we feel that God is calling us to the priesthood, religious life or diaconate? If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Hansoo 416-968-0997.

DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Catholics are reminded that they need their pastor's permission to enter into a valid marriage. Sacraments such as baptisms, confirmations, and marriage should as a rule be received in one's own parish. Sometimes, there are good reasons to receive them somewhere else and the Church makes provisions for such cases. In the case of marriage, at least one of the bride and groom needs to approach his or her pastor to obtain permission to get married in a church that is not the parish church of either party. Without this permission, the marriage is not valid.

This is especially important to keep in mind at a time when "destination weddings" are becoming more common. Professional marriage planners often do not know of this Church requirement or do not worry about it for fear of losing business. They assure the couple that all will be taken care of in the Caribbean or the Philippines or Mexico or other parts of Canada. They may even know of an unscrupulous Catholic priest to do the wedding there. It may be convenient, but, unless the couple has the permission of their parish priest, such a wedding is not a valid marriage.

FRIDAYS FOR THE YOUTH

Boys and Girls, grade 8 and up are invited to meet on Fridays at the Oratory, beginning on January 27, at 7:30 p.m. There will be talks, movies, holy hours, and refreshments. Please come, and bring your friends.

EVENING AT THE ORATORY:

The next Evening at the Oratory will take place on Wednesday, February 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall at Holy Family. Talk followed by refreshments and Compline.

Guest Speaker: William Kurelek, Catholic Artist

IRAQI CHRISTIAN REFUGEE UPDATE

We now have a family assigned to us, which includes Melad Gorgees, 30, mother of two children; Stafia, age 13, and Stafro, age 10. Melad and her children left Iraq in 2003, fearing for their safety, due to the escalating sectarian violence and her extended family's employment assisting the US Army. They have been living in a Syrian refugee camp, waiting to for sponsorship to Canada or the US. When protest and violence broke out earlier this year in Syria, the family moved to Jordan. Melad has been supporting her family by working odd jobs wherever she can. We are told that they will probably not arrive until the fall of 2012. As their arrival date approaches, we will be asking parishioners to volunteer their time and material resources to help the family to settle. However, if you are especially interested in this project and would like to be kept more informed, please leave your name and contact info at the rectory or send it to us by e-mail.
