SHRINES OF CANADA

There are many shrines in Canada mainly in Quebec which are not too far to drive for a family trip.

Our Lady of the Cape is Canada's National Marian Shrine. It is located at the junction of the St. Maurice and St. Lawrence rivers, in the district of Cap-de-la-Madeleine.

The first Jesuit missionary arrived in 1635, preaching the Gospel to the Native Indians. He died a martyr two years later.

In 1659, a small wooden church was built by the first pastor, Fr. Paul Vachon. He began the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary in 1694. The small wooden church was replaced in 1720 with a fieldstone Church. It is the oldest church in Canada in which Mass is still celebrated daily.

Following Fr. Vachon's death in 1729, there was a period of 115 years that the people were without a pastor, this led people to stop praying and abandon the faith.

A new pastor, Fr. Luc Desilets arrived in 1864. He was discouraged because very few people were going to church. Until one day, in 1867, he heard a noise in the church. He found a dirty pig chewing on a rosary. He could not believe what he saw! He yanked the rosary out of the mouth of the pig. All he could think of was that this parish established the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary and there was no love for the rosary. That night he turned to Mother Mary with faith. After consecrating himself to the Blessed Mother, he promised to re-introduce devotion of the rosary in the parish. Immediately, he began to invite the people to pray the rosary after each Mass. He also encouraged praying the rosary at home. Soon more and more parishioners started coming to church. The church was too small for the number of parishioners attending Mass. Permission was granted to build a larger church for the growing parish.

There were two miracles that were witnessed at this shrine. The first while building the new and larger church and the second in the fieldstone church.

In 1904, the Pope decided to crown Our Lady of the Cape. By the decree of the Pope, Our Lady of the Cape became the Queen of Canada.

Our Lady of the Cape, pray for us! Bless Canada with a renewed and living faith!
