ORATORY SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

In the past twenty-plus years, hundreds of people have found the Oratory Theology Summer School a wonderful way of having a crash course in Catholicism, as well as an opportunity to meet other Catholics. Each week consists of three lectures a day (Monday through Friday), with Mass and lunch included.

The first week's session is dedicated to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Anyone wishing to take the second session must have attended this course (either this year or in a previous year).

This year's second session marks the 500th anniversary of the birth of St Philip Neri, the Founder of the Oratory.

Session I July 6-10 Catechism of the Catholic Church

Session II July 13-17 St. Philip: The Early Years

Classes will be held at Holy Family Parish starting at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 3 p.m. These classes are for adults and older teens. The fee for each session per person is $150. If you would like to reserve a room in the Seminary Residence for the week, the cost is $50. If you are interested please register online www.oratory-toronto.org or pick up a form from the back of the church.

FR ROBINSON'S NEW BOOK

IN NO STRANGE LAND

The embodied Mysticism of Saint Philip Neri

Jonathan Robinson of the Oratory

IN NO STRANGE LAND illuminates the richness of mysticism—in the life of Philip Neri - as an “experience of the activity of God.” The life of the Apostle of Rome demonstrates that it is primarily people, not arguments, that reveal the mysteries of God. Philip's experience of God, his mysticism, was given him for the sake of others. Furthermore, that experience itself was embodied; that is to say awakened, nourished, and brought to fruition within the religious tradition into which he was born, and from which he lived - in particular the Church of Renaissance Florence and Rome, with its own particular appropriation of Christianity. It is this sacramental life that places mysticism beyond the merely private and esoteric, and allows for the mystic, in Newman's phrase, “to use this world well.”

With great deftness, Fr. Robinson traverses biographical, historical, and theological domains as he examines the nature of experience, the roles of knowledge and love in prayer, and the primacy of grace in the accomplishment of salvation. Informative and engaging, In No Strange Land is an outstanding contribution to Renaissance biography, historical theology, and the study of mysticism.

The book was to arrive this week, and should be available at the Oratory bookstall at Holy Family parish.

UPCOMING ANNIVERSARY EVENTS

The next big event for our parish's 100th anniversary celebrations is a Solemn High Mass in the Extraordinary Form for the feast of the Assumption (August 15) at 10 a.m. This marks the day the cornerstone was laid and the ‘basement church’ began to be in use.

The Adelphi Vocal Ensemble will present a concert on the evening of August 14!
