YOUTH WORK WEEK (JUNE 28 TO JULY 2)

There is lots of work that needs doing in the church and parish hall. Do you want to help? Youth are especially invited, but the not-so-young are also welcome. We start at 9:15 a.m. -- after the morning Mass and after breakfast (provided). We work until 1:00 p.m. Lunch is provided. Afterwards, there will be a movie and a discussion in the parish hall. We'll take a break on Canada Day. On Saturday, July 3, the youth who help are invited to hike the Niagara Gorge and a BBQ at Fr Hilbert's parents' house in Beamsville. And if there is a really enthusiastic group of helpers, we might even leave for Beamsville on Friday afternoon and stay overnight. Please let us know if you plan to help, so that we can in turn plan the work and the meals.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION SIGN-UP SUNDAY

Are you a supporter of publicly funded Catholic Schools? Archbishop Collins has asked that this weekend be designated as Catholic Education "Sign-Up Sunday" in all parishes. We invite parishioners to designate their support of the Catholic school system on their property tax assessment. Our parish lies within the boundaries of the Toronto Catholic District School Board. You may not be aware that if you move, your assessment status defaults to that of a public ratepayer. Your support helps to maintain an accurate registry of Catholic ratepayers and to determine the number of Catholic Trustees to govern our schools. Most importantly, it allows you to vote for Catholic School Board Trustees. The next municipal election will take place this October in municipalities throughout our Archdiocese. Materials are available at the back of the church this weekend to help provide a step-by-step process to ensure that you are registered as a Catholic School supporter. Thank you for your ongoing support of Catholic Education.

O PRECIOUS AND WONDERFUL BANQUET!

St Thomas Aquinas

Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us for ever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.
