FROM SVP SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Pope and Doctor ran for its tenth year last Saturday! Music and lights, food and drink, and you, were all there for a few hours. Once again, the wooden pub sign flew out at the side of the Hall. Now it is back, perched up on the storage room shelf, waiting to fly outside again next year. Thank you to all who helped and attended. Enough funds were raised to help the parish along socially.....

On Saturday Feb 18th, 2017, our parish will host the Ceili again. Mark your calendars for this night of fiddle music, dance-calling, food and drink for all ages. More details closer to the date.

Furniture Donations Request: A comfy love seat has been donated to the parish. It adds to our growing library, which is put out during coffee hours after Masses on Sundays, thanks to parishioners and some donations from the Sisters of Life. If anyone has an old armchair or two that they would like to donate to the library, it would be greatly appreciated. During the week, the love seat (and any other such furniture) is stored out of harm's way (hopefully) and covered with a dustsheet. These pieces of furniture can also be used during the pub and ceili nights, as we create a Quiet Flop Room with tea, blankets, mattresses, etc. for little children and their parents, at the back of the hall: So your donations will be well used, as are all the mugs and bowls we've received in the past.
