The usual time for first Confession and Communion is grade 2; and for Confirmation, grade 8. If you have children beginning in these grades this fall, please register them in our catechism programs. Registration forms are available at the back of the church. Classes are as follows:

Confirmation

Classes take place after the 9:30 Mass in the basement of the rectory next door.

First Communion

Classes are held after the 9:30 Mass in a classroom behind the parish hall in the basement.

VOCATION SEEDS

How has Jesus touched you and made you whole? In gratitude, ask Him how He would like you to respond. Could Jesus be calling you to follow him as a priest, sister, brother or deacon? If God is calling you, contact Fr. Hansoo Park 416-968-0997, or email: vocations@vocations.ca www.vocationstoronto.ca

IT'S BACK! THE POPE AND DOCTOR PUB NIGHT

Nov 6th, Saturday 7:30 p.m. –12 a.m. The Pope and Doctor pub night in the hall. Come out and listen to fabulous live pub music, eat ye famous pub dynner by the Junops, and drink beer on tap. Darts and fusbal and lots of places to chat. The last two pubs helped to repaint the church hall but the real fun is in the evening itself. Tickets, $25, include everything except (very inexpensive) beer and wine and are on sale beginning next Sunday. Come out and relax together, and bring your friends!

ST. TERESA OF JESUS (OF AVILA), F.D. OCTOBER 15

Born in 1515 in the kingdom of Castile in Spain, she was the youngest child of a virtuous nobleman. When she was seven years old, Teresa fled from her home with one of her young brothers, in the hope of going to Africa and receiving the palm of martyrdom. Brought back and asked the reason for her flight, she replied: "I want to see God, and I must die before I can see Him." She then began, with her same brother, Rodriguez, to build a hermitage in the garden, and was often heard repeating: "Forever, forever!" She lost her mother at the age of twelve years, and was led by worldly companions into various frivolities. Her father decided to place her in a boarding convent, and she obeyed without any inclination for this kind of life. Grace came to her assistance with the good guidance of the Sisters, and she decided to enter religion in the Carmelite monastery of the Incarnation at Avila.

For a time frivolous conversations there, too, checked her progress toward perfection, but finally in her thirty-first year, she abandoned herself entirely to God. A vision showed her the very place in hell to which her apparently light faults would have led her, and she was told by Our Lord that all her conversation must be with heaven. Ever afterwards she lived in the deepest distrust of herself. When she was named Prioress against her will at the monastery of the Incarnation, she succeeded in conciliating even the most hostile hearts by placing a statue of Our Lady in the seat she would ordinarily have occupied, to preside over the Community.

God enlightened her to understand that He desired the reform of her Order, and her heart was pierced with divine love. The Superior General gave her full permission to found as many houses as might become feasible. She dreaded nothing so much as delusion in the decisions she would make in difficult situations; we can well understand this, knowing she founded seventeen convents for the Sisters, and that fifteen others for the Fathers of the Reform were established during her lifetime, with the aid of Saint John of the Cross. To the end of her life she acted only under obedience to her confessors, and this practice both made her strong and preserved her from error. Journeying in those days was far from comfortable and even perilous, but nothing could stop the Saint from accomplishing the holy Will of God. When the cart was overturned one day and she had a broken leg, her sense of humor became very evident by her remark: "Dear Lord, if this is how You treat Your friends, it is no wonder You have so few!" She died October 4, 1582, and was canonized in 1622.

Let nothing trouble you.
Let nothing frighten you.
All is fleeting.
God alone is unchanging.
Patience obtains
everything.
The one who possesses God
lacks nothing.
God alone suffices.
