THE NEW MISSAL – NOVEMBER 27

Did you know that the translation of the Mass which we currently use is going to change? The texts we have now have been in use since 1970 and on November 27, 2011, churches throughout North America will begin to use a new translation. This moment in the life of the church provides us with an opportunity to learn more than just words that are a little different from what we're used to. It is a chance for us to reflect on the celebration of the Eucharist and how it relates to our own life. In addition to discussing the new Roman Missal in homilies, pulpit announcements and in our parish bulletin, the Archdiocese of Toronto also has extensive resources online for those who wish to learn more. Visit www.archtoronto.org/romanmissal to continue your reflection.

LIFE CHAIN – TODAY!

Sunday, October 2 from 2:00 to 3:00

Life Chain is a simple and prayerful way to give public witness to the Truth that abortion is a violent destruction of human life. It takes only an hour and all you have to do is stand quietly with others, holding a sign with a simple message. The signs say: "Abortion kills Children", "Abortion hurts Women", and "Jesus forgives and heals". And as you stand, you can quietly pray the Rosary for the conversion of our leaders.

This year Life Chain takes place on Sunday, October 2nd from 2:00 to 3:00 PM. Our church will be at Keele and Bloor. Please offer up this simple hour.

THE SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH AT NUIT BLANCHE

On October 1, 2011, the teachers and students of St. Joseph's College School are presenting a multimedia art installation called "Cloister" as a part of Nuit Blanche, Toronto's playful overnight contemporary art festival.

Projections woven into intervals of performance and sound, our project celebrates the 156-year legacy of the Sisters of St. Joseph and their rich contribution to the culture and social history of Toronto. Come to 74 Wellesley Street West (just west of Bay), between 7:00 p.m. and sunrise, and experience an audio-visual homage to a vibrant community of Catholic women.
