SVP SCHOOL CAMPAIGN

No one should go hungry, but 870 million people around the world do, every day – some of them in our own backyard. Sometimes changing the world needs to start at home. Every year, St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Elementary School participates in the We Scare Hunger Campaign during the month of October. In a time when we are focusing on the virtue of Gratitude, we also remember the importance of giving. This year, we would like to work together with St. Vincent de Paul Church in collecting non-perishable food items for The Daily Bread Food Bank. This campaign offers us the opportunity to have the Parish, the School and the Home, working together and living out our faith as a community. The school has provided a box for donations at the back of the church.

The Cardinal writes, "I pray that we will continue to accomplish great things together as a faith community, showing loving concern for each and every person we serve."
