LIFECCHAIN – TODAY, OCTOBER 3

2:00 - 3:00 P.M., KEELE ST. & BLOOR ST.

LifeChain is a prayerful way to witness to the Truth and Life. Standing quietly with others at a busy intersection and holding signs with simple messages: “Life, the First Human Right”; “Abortion Hurts Women”; or “Jesus Forgives and Heals”. While praying quietly for our nation, witness is given to the sanctity of all human life. Parishioners are invited to stand at the corner of Keele and Bloor TODAY, October 3 from 2 - 3 p.m. We are all called to witness to the sanctity of life.

“Will you not watch one hour with Me?” (Mark 14:37)

ST. ALOYSIUS SCROSOPPI, PRAY FOR US!

Aloysius Dominic Scrosoppi (always known as Luigi) was born on August 4th, 1804 in the town of Udine, in the region of Friuli in northeast Italy. He was ordained priest on March 31st, 1827. The wretchedly poor conditions during the 1800s in a Friuli devastated by famine, wars and pestilence were for Luigi an invitation to care for those most in need. He dedicated himself to gathering together and educating poor and abandoned girls; to them he devoted all his material possessions, his energies and his affection. He did not spare himself, and when the situation called for it he went around begging. Eventually this work led to his founding of the Congregation of the Sisters of Providence.

In the meantime, Luigi was reflecting on the need to make a more total consecration to the Lord. He was attracted by the ideal of poverty and universal brotherhood of St Francis of Assisi, but the events of his own life and of history led him to follow in the footsteps of St Philip Neri, the saint of prayer, humility and pastoral charity. Luigi followed his "Oratorian" vocation in 1846, and at the mature age of 42 he became a son of St Philip. From him he learned that meekness and tenderhearted spirit which would make him ever more suited to the task of founder and father of the Congregation of the Sisters of Providence. Luigi strove to imitate St. Philip closely, especially in his love of humility and retirement from the gaze of the world. Also like St. Philip, a spirit of cheerfulness and gaiety marked Luigi's life. His complete indifference to earthly reputation and honour was reflected in what he said to his nuns as he lay dying: 'I do not want this poor man even to be remembered'.
