CATHOLIC ESTATE PLANNING SESSION – TODAY!

Join us on Sunday, October 6th at 10:30 a.m. in the parish hall for an informative session on estate planning. Have you been meaning to update your will or get one made? If so, then come to the estate planning session that the Development Office of the Archdiocese of Toronto will be holding at our parish. The Development Office conducts these sessions across the Archdiocese as a service to parishioners. The goal is to help you protect yourselves and your loved ones by creating a well thought out estate plan that respects your wishes and Catholic faith. Some of the topics will include:

- Estate planning from a Catholic perspective
- How to protect your loved ones with a proper will
- About powers of attorney
- Finding lawyers and estate planning advisors
- Our Catholic traditions around wills, burial and funerals
- The importance of remembering our Catholic faith when creating your estate plan

An estate planning kit will be provided at no cost. Coffee and refreshments will be provided. We look forward to seeing you there!

LIFE CHAIN, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6 – TODAY!

LifeChain is a silent, prayerful demonstration that takes place every year, and it is an easy way for you and your congregation to witness to the sanctity of life. This afternoon, Sunday, October 6th, there will be a gathering of faith groups at select intersections to bear public, silent witness for one hour between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. The location for our parish is Keele and Bloor, as in previous years.

ST. COLUMBANUS CEILI: SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23RD

This year, the Pope and Doctor has been moved over to February 22nd, 2014 so as to accommodate an Anniversary Fund Ceili at St. Vincent de Paul Church. SVP is trying to repaint the walls of the church for its 100th Anniversary and so the Ceili revenue will go straight towards this. Move that paint brush!!

A ceili (kay-lee) (Irish spelling) or ceilidh (Scottish spelling), according to Wiki, “is a traditional Gaelic social gathering, which usually involves playing Gaelic folk music and dancing. It originated in Ireland and Scotland.” Ceilis are for all ages; bring your nursing babies, toddlers, youth, aunts, uncles, and aged parents. Bring friends. In subsequent bulletins we will give you the details on the music, dancing, patron saint, food and drink of our parish ceili; so stand by!!!

BL. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN:

TWO CONVERSIONS

Cardinal Newman was born in London on 21 February 1801. He was brought up in the Anglican tradition, and as a young man had a strong religious inclination that was mainly expressed in reading the Bible. From his earliest years, Sacred Scripture endowed him with high moral standards, but his intellectual potential demanded something more precise and more clearly defined.

Very soon, when he was only 14 years old, he was tempted by disbelief and self-sufficiency. He wanted to be a gentleman, but not to believe in God. "I remember", he wrote about this, "that I wanted to be virtuous but not to be religious; I had not understood what loving God means". As the young student struggled with this temptation, God knocked at his heart.

During his holidays in 1816, he read Force of Truth by Thomas Scott and its content made a profound impression on him. He subsequently experienced his "first conversion", which he himself considered one of the most significant graces of his life. It involved acute awareness of the existence and presence of God and of the invisible world.

The “second conversion” of Newman took place nearly 30 years later. An Anglican priest at the time, while immersing himself in studies on the development of Christian doctrine, Newman realized that the Church of Rome was the Church of the Fathers, the true Church of Christ.... On 9 October 1845, he embraced the Catholic faith and was received by Bl. Dominic Barberi, an Italian Passionist, into the Catholic Church which he described as "the One Fold of Christ".
