April 29, 2018—Fifth Sunday of Easter

On this 5th Sunday of Easter, we are reminded of our call to holiness. The Gospel encourages us to stay united to Christ: “Whoever abides in me and I in them bears much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.” Discipleship is all about remaining connected to Jesus. We do this in our daily prayer, in our weekly reception of the Eucharist and in the forgiveness offered in Reconciliation. May we continue to remain rooted deeply in Christ who is the source of all the good things we do in His name.

It has been wonderful to watch the children as they receive the Eucharist for the first time. May they continue to follow Jesus. May their parents and families understand the importance of celebrating weekly this gift of the Eucharist which is the source of grace for us.

Congratulations to our 2 newly ordained priests: Fr. Paul Kim and Fr. Robert Weaver. May the Lord bless them as they begin their priestly ministry in our Diocese.

HOLY FAMILY ICON: this week our Knights are hosting this special icon. We seek the intercession of the Holy Family for our families and our parish family. Members of the Knights are asked to come and join in the praying of the Rosary on Tuesday at 6:30 pm. Members of the Catholic Women’s League are asked to come to pray the Rosary on Friday at 11:30 am as part of our Day of Prayer for Comprehensive Palliative Care in Canada.

Many thanks to all who have been bringing in milk bags over the years. We are no longer collecting them.

Thank you to Rose Marie Lapointe who over the years has faithfully taken these bags and crafted them into mats which were sent to developing nations to use in homes where families were sleeping on bare earth. Her dedication over the years has been inspiring.

We continue to collect stamps and used eyeglasses. Drop off at the Welcome Desk.
