August 18th & August 25th 2019— 20th & 21st Sundays in Ordinary Time From the desk of Fr. Rob

We are all called to be prophets and this can be a disconcerting task at times. Strengthened by the grace of our baptism, we are to proclaim the truth of the Gospel. The Letter to the Hebrews stresses we are not alone in this calling. We are surrounded by a great crowd of witnesses who persevered and remained faithful to their calling. From their place in heaven, they intercede for us and offer encouragement. Let us share the Gospel boldly and with conviction.

Welcome and thanks to Fr. Mark Gazin CSB and Fr. Robert Champagne for their weekend assistance.

Fr. Daniel and I have been greatly enjoying the opportunity to be in different places each weekend and see new faces. Please continue to keep telling us who you are so that we get to know everyone better in the family.

It has also been wonderful celebrating weekday mass in three different locations as well as the nursing homes and having the daily mass attendees join us in each place. We are truly forming a family of prayer and getting used to this new way of celebrating together even if it means moving around (like the first disciples)!

We look forward to our trip to the Shrine on Thursday and the many blessings that will come our way as we pray for the needs of our Family.

PARISH MINISTRIES

Now is the time to start thinking about how you would like to get involved in the ministries and groups of our family. There are many ways that we can share our time and talent in order to build up our communities: visiting the sick and homebound, serving the poor, helping in the liturgy as altar servers, lectors or ministers of the communion, music ministry and ushers. Helping to teach our children and youth with catechism and preparation for sacraments, Sunday School, and youth ministry programmes. Knights of Columbus, Catholic Women's League, Building and Property, gardening and landscape, coffee socials, prayer groups. The list is endless and everyone has something to offer to help build up our family in faith. Think prayerfully over the next few weeks. We will have a Coffee Social and Ministry Sign-up at all 3 churches on September 14/15 after all masses where you can offer to get involved.
