June 10, 2018—Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we return to the pace of Ordinary Time now that Easter and our two other solemnities are finished, we are given an opportunity to reflect on what it means to follow the Lord Jesus and truly live our lives as His disciples. Jesus tells us today that His brothers and sisters are those who do the will of God. Each day we are called to open our hearts to God's loving grace and mercy and trust in Divine Providence. May these weeks of summer as they approach give us time to stop, ponder God's love for us and listen to God's call.

This Wednesday is the Bishop's Dinner in London. I am part of a group of six priests who will be providing the evening entertainment. Hopefully, after 6 months of choir practices etc. it will be a good presentation as we support vocations and the work of our vocations office. Pray for us! (I am not giving up my day job!)

The parish groups have submitted their plans for 2018-2019. We will spend the day on Tuesday, June 19th doing our pastoral planning: school masses, sacramental programmes etc. The office will be closed in the morning.

A reminder to Heron Terrace volunteers: Sunday communion June 17th at 9 am; mass on Tuesday, June 19th at 2 pm.

This week we will celebrate with the elementary and secondary schools the end of year masses.
