May 26, 2019– Sixth Sunday of Easter

The Easter Season has certainly flown by and we are to start preparing our hearts for Pentecost. Jesus promises the disciples that he will send the Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. In Acts, we hear of how the early Christian family settled conflict and dissension amongst themselves: with prayer and understanding. They were open to the Holy Spirit and allowed themselves to be led by grace.

We are to do the same in our families and parish communities. If we take time to pray each day, that shows our openness to the Holy Spirit and our attentiveness to God's Word.

APPRECIATION SOCIAL: next weekend after mass, we are all invited to stop into St. Francis Hall for refreshments and offer thanks for the dedicated ministry of each other. Each one of us is essential in the mission of the Church and has gifts to offer. We are grateful for all who keep our family in their daily prayers and who by their generosity of time and talent, enable us to meet the pastoral needs of our community.

Pastoral Study Days: All of the priests, deacons and lay ministers of the Diocese will be in London this week for our Diocesan Days. Please keep us in your prayers. Due to this, there is no mass on Tuesday evening but there will be mass on Wednesday at 7 pm upon our return.

We are also encouraged to join in mass when celebrated at the nursing homes or with the schools.
