November 10, 2019 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Fr. Rob...

The readings challenge us to widen our perspective. Jesus, in talking about the Resurrection wants us to move beyond comparing eternal life to the life we have now. He wants us to believe and understand that it is so much more than we can imagine or even describe. The Kingdom is not limited to what we envision it to be but rather it is as God intends. That is why the promise of eternal life gives us hope. I always wanted to get a tattoo, well 2 actually but haven't because of the pain involved! A Canadian Maple Leaf –in case I get lost, just point at the leaf and get me back to Canada. And the word HOPE because it is what gives me and all of us a firm foundation. Hope is believing in the utter goodness of God's creation despite the bumps and bruises and obstacles that are along the way. Hope spurs us on to a new and better life.

Again welcome to Fr. Gerry Campeau and thanks for helping Fr. Daniel while I am away. I have taken the opportunity to return to Italy and retrace some of my steps from my sabbatical experience in 2013. The Pope sadly is going to Japan while I'm there but I promise to pray for all of you as I celebrate mass especially at the tomb of St. Peter. I am so blessed. Thanks to all for the cards, hugs, gifts, kind words, prayers and wishes last weekend for my 54th birthday. I am truly grateful and blessed to be with all of you in our 4 amazing communities.

From Pope Francis on Characteristics of Mission (Evangelii Gaudium-The Joy of the Gospel) cont'd.

5. Works of Love: "Everyone needs to be touched by the comfort and attraction of God's saving love, which is mysteriously at work in each person, above and beyond their faults and failings."

6. Mercy: "Mercy is the greatest of all virtues."

The survival of the Amazon concerns all humanity.

The Amazon is home to one-fifth of the world's freshwater and one-third of the Earth's forests. Its Indigenous peoples live sustainably from its resources, but the Amazon is under threat. "The destruction of the Amazon is not just the problem of Indigenous peoples, but of all humanity. If the Amazon disappears, it is very likely that all humanity will disappear," says Yesica Patiachi, a member of the Harakbut Indigenous community in Peru.

We are all interconnected. Let's stand in solidarity with those who strive to protect our land, our waters and our lives. Let's take action For Our Common Home: devp.org/campaign.

World Day of the Poor

On November 16/17 the Church marks the World Day of the Poor.

LITURGY UPDATE

We are blessed to have dedicated music ministers in our communities which allows us to worship the Lord with full heart and voice. Over the next few weeks, they will be teaching us some new mass settings (St. John Vianney & St. Vincent) so that we will have 3 settings to choose from as we celebrate in all 3 parishes. We will be learning the Dawson mass settings in the Celebrate in Song books (setting B) which our Lady of the Atonement is already familiar with. Knowing these various settings enables all of us to feel at home as we celebrate and use all the resources at our disposal to worship the Lord. We will begin using this setting in January in all 3 communities.

There is a Time for Everything under Heaven...

Let us all pray for all those who are in need of healing, at home, nursing homes or in hospital, and all those who care for them. Let us pray also for those who have died:

Patricia Le Blanc, Giacomo Trotti
May the Lord comfort those who mourn them.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Tuesday, Nov. 26 @ 7pm mass @ OLOA,
Wednesday, Nov. 27 @ 10 am mass @ OLOA,
Thursday, Nov. 28 @ 9 am mass @ SJV and
Friday, Nov. 29 @ 9 am mass @ SVDP.

This sacrament is for those preparing for surgery, undergoing treatment, in a weakened condition due to illness and needing healing. We pray for all those in need of healing and strength in mind, body and spirit. The sacrament can only be received once that week but all are welcome to join us each day to pray with the sick.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF MARY will be celebrated on Monday, December 9th. We will adopt this day as the feast day of our Lady of the Atonement Parish as it is the feast day of the Diocese and makes perfect sense. Mary is conceived without the stain of sin, allowing her to say yes to God and give birth to Jesus who is the Atonement. Come and celebrate one of our heavenly patrons with mass at 7pm at Our Lady of the Atonement Church. Rosary will be prayed at 6:15 pm.
