November 17, 2019 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Fr. Daniel.....

This past Monday, Remembrance Day, I attended a prayer service held at one of the schools we serve. All the students, teachers and staff were present in the gym for the service. I was very impressed by the reverence and prayerfulness of the students and all in attendance.

We experienced our first real snow fall this past Monday as well. Were you ready? As we come to the end of yet another liturgical year with the celebration of Christ the King next weekend, the Church reflects on the last things: Death, Judgement, Heaven, Hell and the end of time. Are you ready? This past liturgical year we have been listening to St. Luke's Gospel. This Gospel reflects on the gentleness and forgiveness that were the marks of Jesus' ministry. Once again this weekend, the Gospel gives an account of the teaching given by Jesus in Jerusalem before His passion. The readings this weekend challenge us to look at our own lives. Where do we place our time, resources and hope? Is God calling us to create more space for service, prayer, love and community? These are the things in life that are enduring.

What good is the Gospel of Jesus Christ if we do not engage in the world we live in? The fruit of prayer is strong faith and it is faith that leads us to Christian action. Prayer without action and involvement is a futile act. Yes, the Holy Spirit calls us to be bold, courageous, active and compassionate. We are called to be a people of prayer, we are called to action and that is what it means to be a missionary church. Every one of us is called to be a missionary disciple. Together, let us be faithful to the teachings of Jesus. We are to welcome His gift of wisdom, to continue looking first and foremost to God in every graced moment. And then, to roll with the punches and all that life throws at us, the joys, the pains and the disappointments, until He comes again to take us home.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

Soon this special season will be upon us. We must use wisely this time which is given over to reflection on the return of Christ in Glory first, and then on the Incarnation. As disciples, let us make every effort not to drag the Christmas Season ahead like our society does but instead focus on waiting, silence, patience. All social gatherings in Advent will have an advent theme to them to respect this.

From Pope Francis on Characteristics of Mission (Evangelii Gaudium-The Joy of the Gospel) cont'd.

7. A missionary heart: "It never closes itself off, never retreats in to its own security, never opts for rigidity and defensiveness. It realizes that it has to grow in its own understanding of the Gospel and in discerning the paths of the Spirit, and so it always does what good it can, even if in the process, its shoes gets soiled by the mud of the street."

New Vocations Website dedicated to fostering priestly vocations, www.dolpriest.ca, was launched on Priesthood Sunday, Sept. 29. The hope of this site is that it will lead young men who are discerning the priesthood to discover the gift of their vocation, and offer them resources that are relevant to their experience. Please share the address of the website, in particular if you know of someone who might be interested in the priesthood.

LITURGY UPDATE

We are blessed to have dedicated music ministers in our communities which allows us to worship the Lord with full heart and voice.

Over the next few weeks, they will be teaching us some new mass settings (St. John Vianney & St. Vincent) so that we will have 3 settings to choose from as we celebrate in all 3 parishes. We will be learning the Dawson mass settings in the Celebrate in Song books (setting B) which our Lady of the Atonement is already familiar with. Knowing these various settings enables all of us to feel at home as we celebrate and use all the resources at our disposal to worship the Lord. We will begin using this setting in January in all 3 communities.
