November 3, 2019 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Fr. Rob.....

Imagine yourself in Zacchaeus' shoes. He is embarrassed about his misdeeds and just wants a brief glimpse as Jesus walks by where he is hiding. Instead the Lord stops, looks up, calls him by name and invites Himself over for dinner. Mercy has triumphed. This encounter reminds us that regardless of our sins and failings, the Lord is always ready to come and meet us, calling us by name and inviting us to trust in His mercy and love. This encounter reminds us that God is always ready to do anything and everything to ensure that not one of us is ever lost. This week, ask yourself: how willing am I to risk everything in order to encounter the Lord and His grace?

School Masses: once again we gather this week to celebrate with our 4 elementary schools, focusing on the call to be apostles and sharing the Good News.

Be aware of the changes in dates/times and locations of daily mass this week because of the school gatherings. All are welcome to come and pray together at these school masses.

Welcome: to Fr. Gerry Campeau who will be lending a hand on weekends to assist Fr. Daniel while I am away on holiday. Thanks Fr. Gerry and nice to have you with us.

From Pope Francis on Characteristics of Mission (Evangelii Gaudium-The Joy of the Gospel) cont'd.

4. Simplicity: the message has to concentrate on the essentials, on what is "most beautiful, most grand, most appealing and at the same time, most necessary...in this basic core, what shines forth is the beauty of the saving love of God made manifest in Jesus Christ who died and rose from the dead."
