October 6, 2019 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Fr. Rob.....

Today St. Paul encourages his friend Timothy “to rekindle the gift of God that is within you”. In baptism, God’s grace has been given to us in abundance and each day begins anew our call to witness to the Gospel wherever we happen to find ourselves. This month, dedicated to the Missions reminds us that each one of us has something to offer as we seek to be prophetic witnesses and help build up the Kingdom of God. Certainly praying with and for one another is a great start. Knowing that we have the Holy Spirit as our helper and guide is a great comfort as we meet the challenges of living a faith-filled life.

This month all of our St. Vincent de Paul Conferences are conducting their food drives. This is but a small way of showing that we are in solidarity with those around us who are in need. Thank you to all for answering the call with a generous heart and thanks to our Vincentians for serving with compassion and love.

SCHOOL MASSES: again this week we will gather with the staff and students of our 4 elementary schools as well as the high school for their Thanksgiving Day masses. All told, that’s an opportunity to preach the Gospel to over 3000 students and staff and share with them the call to be disciples of Jesus. The pastoral team strives to be present to our children and youth and play an active role in their faith formation as witnesses of Christ.

All parishioners, parents and grandparents are welcome to join us as we give thanks for our many blessings at these masses. See the inside schedule for dates and times.

Monday is the feast of the Holy Rosary. Take time to pray all or part of it and ask for Mary’s help.

There is a Time for Everything under Heaven...

Let us all pray for all those who are in need of healing, at home, nursing homes or in hospital, and all those who care for them. Let us pray also for those who have died:

Jozef O'Beid, Kevin Dunne

May the Lord comfort those who mourn them.

Dear Parishioners;

Our St. Vincent de Paul volunteers @ St. John Vianney handed out food bags this weekend. They will be at the doors of the church next weekend (Thanksgiving Weekend) to greet you and collect the bags filled with canned goods, pasta, peanut butter and cereal which will be brought to the parish meeting room.

Our Lady of the Atonement: bags will be distributed after mass on October 19/20 and food items can be returned on October 26/27 directly to St. Francis Hall before mass. Members will be on hand to assist.

By greeting you at the doors of the church, you have a chance to meet our Vincentians face to face and perhaps find out more of this important ministry of service.

St. Vincent de Paul: items were collected last weekend.

Thank you so much for your continued generosity to help those in need! God Bless.

PASTORAL CARE: Be sure to inform the hospital when you or a loved one are admitted that you are Catholic. That way you will be able to receive spiritual care while in hospital. The Anointing of the Sick is available anytime for those preparing for surgery. Speak to Fr. Rob or Fr. Daniel.

Nursing Home masses for this month: Tuesday, October 8th 2 pm @ Heron Terrace,

Tuesday, October 22nd 2 pm @ Aspen Lake. Thanks to our volunteers who faithfully assist each month.
