September 1, 2019 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Fr. Rob.....

One of the qualities of discipleship that the scriptures speak about this weekend is humility. To be humble is to be profoundly aware both of one's strengths and weaknesses. It means being able to stand before God, trusting in Divine Providence and being open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. It means taking on the heart of a servant who recognizes that to serve others with kindness, patience and understanding is at the core of what it means to be like Jesus. Let us embrace this call to be humble servants and trust that God will indeed give us everything we need to accomplish our tasks.

This has to have been the fastest summer on record. The months of July and August flew by and were filled with a multitude of tasks and activities. The monthly calendar this weekend shows the level of activity present in our Family. Let us pray for an awareness of how the Lord is calling us to keep reaching out to others with the Good News.

We are about to begin our sacramental preparation programs with our Grade 8 youth for confirmation which will be in December. Please take note of the meetings:

Sunday, September 8th at 12:30 pm at SJV for students at St. John Vianney school and Wednesday, September 11th at 7 pm at OLOA for students at Lassaline, Desmarais and Langlois schools.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who are planning for baptism over the next few months are asked to contact the parish office and make an appointment with our Pastoral Minister Rachelle Leslie. Baptisms will be celebrated within weekend liturgies normally on the 2nd Sunday of the month in our Family. A preparation class is required for first time parents.

PARISH MINISTRIES

Now is the time to start thinking about how you would like to get involved in the ministries and groups of our family. There are many ways that we can share our time and talent in order to build up our communities: visiting the sick and homebound, serving the poor, helping in the liturgy as altar servers, lectors or ministers of the communion, music ministry and ushers. Helping to teach our children and youth with catechism and preparation for sacraments, Sunday School, and youth ministry programmes. Knights of Columbus, Catholic Women's League, Building and Property, gardening and landscape, coffee socials, prayer groups. The list is endless and everyone has something to offer to help build up our family in faith. Think prayerfully over the next few weeks. We will have a Coffee Social and Ministry Sign-up at all 3 churches on September 14/15 after all masses where you can offer to get involved.

Do you crochet, knit or quilt?

The Prayer Shawl Ministry (at Atonement) is beginning its 12th year in September. We warmly welcome new members to join us from our Family of Parishes. Come out to a meeting and see what it is all about. The first meeting is on Thursday, September 19th at 1 pm in St. Francis Hall at Our Lady of the Atonement. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO WORK WITH OUR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

At the end of the month, our youth group starts which is open to all of the children in our Family of Parishes. It is held on Tuesday evenings in the Atonement Family Centre. Adult leaders are required to assist with our high school leaders.

We also need to volunteers to help with our Sunday School programs: 10 am mass at OLOA and 11 am mass at SJV. Phone the office for more information.

Mass Intentions

If you would like to make a mass request for your intentions, a loved one or for a deceased family member or friend, stop in the parish office at 2940 Forest Glade Dr. We have also put mass request envelopes at the back of the church. On the top just indicate which parish you would like the mass at, who the mass is for and the date preferred.

We will try our very best to accommodate your date. St. John Vianney has a little bit of a back log but it should be better by year end. If you have no preference as to which parish the mass is said, they can be quickly accommodated.

Please include $10 for each mass or a cheque made payable to Our Lady of the Atonement.
