Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Rob

How appropriate and timely that our Gospel this weekend is about the landowner searching for workers to assist in the vineyard. Each time the landowner sets out, it is with the intention of obtaining the workers required to get the harvest collected. He finds people willing to work and promptly sends them on their way to the fields. At the end of the day, the landowner rewards all the workers with the same wage. We must remember that the parables of Jesus are all about God the Father and the Kingdom. Rather than get caught up in the nitty gritty of labour relations and fair wages etc, we are instead to look deeper. The Father requires workers in the Kingdom. He never tires of going out and looking for those who might be open to an invitation to go and work in the vineyard. And when the day is done, God rewards each of the workers with the same wage: eternal life. Simply put, our work in the Kingdom is all about what comes next for us: eternal life in the presence of God forever.

Last weekend we had an opportunity to answer God's call and step forward in service. The Holy Spirit indeed moved hearts to respond to our appeal to get involved. We are in the process of collating the information and getting it to those who lead the various ministries so that they can contact the new ministers soon in order to get the ball rolling, especially those areas that require obtaining a police clearance form. Stay tuned and THANK YOU!

Two special patronal feasts this week: The North American Martyrs on Tuesday and St. Vincent de Paul on Wednesday. May they pray for us!

FAMILY OF PARISHES YOUTH MINISTRY

Youth Group begins Tuesday, October 3rd! We have a wonderful group of teen leaders ready to go. The program is held at the Atonement Family Centre on Tuesdays 6:30 pm to 8 pm and is open to all children of our Family of Parishes grades 3-8. Some days see over 40 kids in attendance! We are in need of some additional adult leaders who have a love for our young people and who want to help them grow in their faith. SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

We have begun our time of preparation with our youth for this important sacrament. Over the next few months they will gather together and learn more about our faith and how to grow as disciples, using the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Today begins their time of prayer and study as they are present this weekend, asking God for the graces they need and for our prayerful support as fellow parishioners.

May the Holy Spirit guide their journey over this special time. For more info contact Maria: mmollica@dol.ca or ext. 23

There is a Time for Everything under Heaven...

Let us all pray for all those who are in need of healing, at home, nursing homes or in hospital, and all those who care for them. Let us pray also for our deceased parishioners and family members who have died:

Darlene Forman & Teodoro Logronio

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

May the Risen Lord bring peace and comfort to those who mourn.
