“Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

This is not just a statement full of sadness, but also one that is full of faith. We can see the faith-filled nature of this statement even more clearly in Jesus’ exchange with Martha. She greets Jesus with these same words, but follows them with an amazing confession, “But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” She has faith not only that Jesus had the power to cure Lazarus, but also that he still has the power to heal the situation. Her faith is at its deepest even in the midst of her greatest sorrow.

Mary’s & Martha’s hope was confirmed by Jesus, who raised their brother from the tomb back to life. We learn from Mary and Martha that faith is rewarded. But we also learn that our faith must be patient, and that God’s plan will not match our own expectations. The redemptive end to this story does not eliminate the very real pain that Mary & Martha felt while they waited for Jesus to arrive. When we experience suffering in our own lives or observe it in the world around us, we are called to recommit ourselves to patiently trusting that God is at work and has the ability to redeem the situation.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT (ShareLife Sunday)
April 2, 2017

Living the Gospel by supporting ShareLife.....

“The ShareLife campaign provides for the needs of our social service agencies, helps to evangelize the Gospel to brothers and sisters in Christ across the world, and supports the education of our clergy. It is important that we continue to support the ShareLife appeal, to provide for the needs of the marginalized both here in our communities and around the world. Sometimes the results are obvious and sometimes they’re invisible but, always they make a tangible difference in the lives of the people we are helping. Please prayerfully consider how you can be supportive today on ShareLife Sunday.”

—Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto.
