Reflection

Cease doubting and believe

While Jesus was alive Thomas was as strong as an oak. But when Jesus was put to death, he became a reel shaking in the wind of doubt. The truth was, though he didn't realize it at the time, that it was the Master who was the oak.

He was a mere sapling growing, in his shade. When the oak fell he was defenceless. All of us are shaken by the winds of doubt. We need to look at the Lord's wounds, and hear his gentle voice saying to us: 'Cease doubting and believe.' Then with Thomas we shall be bold to say: 'My Lord and my God.'

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM A NOTE OF THANKS

Thank You

The Eastminster Out of the Cold Program organizers would like to thank the Holy Name breakfast team for sharing their talents monthly – and special thank you to Sheila Spencer for coordinating the team. It was a busy season and a changing clientele with more young people and seniors using our program than in the past. Our guests regularly tell us that the Out of the Cold Program at Eastminster provides the best breakfast in town! Thank you to all the Holy Name volunteers and donors – your dedication to helping others is truly appreciated! Gloria McPherson, Out of the Cold at Eastminster Coordinator

FLOWERS

During the Easter and Christmas Seasons we enhance our Church with flowers, these plants are paid for with the proceeds from the Flower Envelopes. Your donations make our Worship space beautiful and welcoming. Thank you.

On behalf of Holy Name Parish, the children and teachers of the Children's Liturgy Program today extend our heartfelt thanks to Rosa Venalainen, who has been a teacher in the Children's Program since 1991. Since 1995, Rosa has also been the Coordinator for the teachers of the younger group of children in our program. In addition, Rosa has served for many years as a Eucharistic Minister, and has served on several Parish committees, including the Liturgy Committee and the fundraising committee for the parish renovations.

Today is Rosa's last day teaching the children. Early in May, Rosa and her husband Esko will be moving to their new home near Orillia.

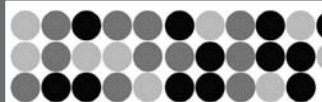

For her long, dedicated, and wide-ranging service to the Parish and the Children's Program, we extend our deepest thanks to Rosa, and we wish for Rosa and Esko all the best as they move to their new home.
