A Life- Giving Death

With Passion or Palm Sunday we are entering today the most Holy Week of our yearly faith journey. Holy Week reminds us of Jesus' total commitment to God's way of self-giving love. Whether riding on the back of a donkey, agonizing in the Garden of Olives, carrying the cross to Golgotha, or praying for his enemies, He shows the depth of His courage, faith and obedience. What happens in Jerusalem during Holy Week brings to sharp focus all that Jesus teaches and stands for: Strength by weakness, power by humility, living by dying.

As we set out on this journey of Holy Week as a community of faith we move into the mystery and into the grace of God. And leading us, of course, is Jesus, whose passion, death, and resurrection we get to retrace, to relive during these holy days. And, my friends, retracing and reliving them can transform us. Make us new. Give us healing. Give us fresh hope. Give us new life.

Fr. Jinto Mathew, C.S.C.

EASTER TRIDUUM

Through his paschal mystery, the Lord Jesus redeemed the human race and gave perfect glory to the Father. By dying, Christ destroyed our death; by rising he restored our life. For this reason, the Easter Triduum, when we celebrate the suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord, is the high point of the liturgical year. The Easter solemnity is to the year what Sunday is to the week. The celebration of the Easter Triduum opens with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its climax in the Easter Vigil, and closes with Evening Prayer II on Easter Sunday.
