Readings for Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, January 15th, 2016

1st Reading: Isaiah 49.3, 5-6
Responsorial Psalm: Ps. 40.1+3a, 6, 7-8, 9
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1.1-3
Gospel: John 1.29-34

"They departed for their country by another way." Things were different now. An encounter with the baby Jesus changed the Magi. Before finding the child, they had made a secret alliance with a worldly king, Herod. But after seeing this infant resting in the arms of Mary, their allegiance shifted. Now they became servants of the little Lord Jesus. They had a kind of conversion through their encounter with Christ, and they knew that they could no longer serve the whims of a wicked ruler.

We call this Sunday "Epiphany" because that's what the three wise men had: an epiphany, a moment of realizing the truth about God. In this moment these three men--kings that they were--"prostrated themselves and did "homage" to the King of Kings. Then they went home by a different route, undoubtedly as different men. Now, their own authority as worldly leaders took on a new character. Now, they were men who served a power greater than themselves. As it was prophesied in the Old Testament reading from Isaiah, even kings would walk by the "shining radiance" of the Lord.

After meeting Jesus, the Magi returned home by "another way." What in our lives need to be done "another way?" Do we need "another way to resolve differences, to communicate or show affection? This is a new year, time to change what isn't working. Take a tip from the wise men, there's always "another way."
