Mass Intentions

and Daily Readings

Rosary at 11:50 a.m.

Today's readings look at the nature of a calling. The first reading examines Elisha's call to serve, while Paul's Letter to the Galatians talks about this calling of all Christians to find freedom by living in the spirit. The gospel then tells us about Jesus setting his face to Jerusalem, about to begin his journey towards the end – his passion and death.

These passages underscore two important points about the nature of our summons as Christians. First, a calling involves redirection. Elisha departs from what is familiar, leaving behind his fields and family to follow God. Paul calls us away from gratifying the desires of the flesh. Finally, Jesus orients himself through unfriendly territories (Samaria and ultimately Jerusalem).

The second point is made most clearly by the rejection of Jesus by the Samaritans. Following God's path involves hardship and difficulty. Embracing God means letting go of the world. Jesus responded to rejection with love and compassion, showing us by example how to persevere in times of difficulty.

These readings point to our need for God's grace. Without grace, the entire reorientation of our lives towards God is too great a struggle. Every time we gather for the Eucharist we take in spiritual nourishment so that we too, like Elisha and Jesus, will boldly follow God's call, undeterred by those who are the hostile and unwelcoming Samaritans of our day.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Ending for the Summer

Today, Sunday, June 26th

The Parish extends thanks to the volunteer coordinators, the adult teachers and helpers who served the parish with dedication this year in this ministry to the children of Holy Name.

In a special way, we want to thank our student helpers, volunteering mostly with the younger children. We have had a very dedicated and faithful group of student helpers this year; showing up early to set up the room, staying late to clean the classroom, and working very well with the children.

The Children's Liturgy Program will resume near the end of September 2016.

Parish Membership

Welcome new parishioners! To be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith. Please introduce yourself/family to the pastor and register as soon as possible. All parishioners especially those who live outside our parish boundaries are expected to complete a Parish Registration form and use Sunday Offertory Envelopes. This will greatly assist the Parish Team when parishioners request sacraments, funerals or letters of reference. N.B. Please notify the parish office if you change your address or family information.
