Pentecost Sunday – Tuned into the Spirit

The coming of the Spirit on that first day of Pentecost was not a once and for all event, but the beginning of God's permanent presence in the Church. Wherever there are hearts open to receive, the Spirit of God is poured out, inspiring minds to undertake their mission as Christ's representatives. Christ has promised that the power of the Spirit will come if we ask for him. It's essential then that in prayer we leave the door of our hearts open to invite him in.

On this Pentecost Sunday, we thank God for the gift of the Holy Spirit who works in countless hidden ways to deepen our faith, fill us with strength and inspiration and to renew our lives. Let us pray that the grace of Pentecost that each of us received sacramentally at our Confirmation might continue to strengthen us to be faithful and courageous witnesses to the truth and beauty of the Gospel.

“Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in us the fire of your love.”
