Feast of Corpus Christi

The Gospel for the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is the feeding of five thousand people. This is a powerful but challenging story. Challenging because that Gospel story is happening over and over again in our world today. People are searching for Christ. People are searching for the compassion of God. People are searching for help.

We celebrate today the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. When we come to receive this great gift...this gift of Christ who comes to us in bread and wine...we should think very carefully about what we are doing. It isn't a casual act. It is coming to Christ in order to receive Christ. It is coming to Christ in order to become Christ. It is bringing to Christ all that we are in order that He might take what little we have and produce within each of us an abundance...an abundance of care and concern, an abundance of understanding, an abundance of energy to feed the hungers of those who are starving for food, for love, and for compassion.

Working wonders for people in our homes and parishes

In 2012, Nadia was brought to Street Haven's emergency shelter by the police. She was an immigrant from India and had been locked in a garage by her husband and mother-in-law for two years, rarely able to visit the two children. Upon her arrival at Street Haven, Nadia thrived. She slowly built trust with the counselors, participated in household responsibilities, and loved looking after the gardens. Her counselor set Nadia up with a lawyer and after a year of legal consultations, she received custody of her two children. Street Haven helped them find housing and Nadia and her children now live in a beautiful, safe home where they have started a new chapter in their lives.

Today is ShareLife Sunday – May 29, 2016
Thank you for your generosity. You can work wonders!
