Update on Refugee Sponsorship

Our sponsored family is still waiting for the Canadian Embassy in Amman Jordan to contact them for the next stage in their application - an interview.

The average processing time for applications in Jordan is 10-months. I should stress that is an average time. Some applications will take longer. Our application will reach the 10-month mark in early October. We are certain our family's application will go beyond ten months because after the interview, there are still security and medical checks to be done.

We do not know where our family is in the queue, nor do we have any way of finding out. Our Liberal MP, Julie Dabrusin and her staff continue to be very helpful in checking up on the status of our family, and other refugees sponsored by groups in her riding. She tells us we are not alone. There are many sponsorship groups waiting for word on the status of their families.

Ms Dabrusin is also lobbying the federal Liberal caucus to address how Immigration can give sponsorship groups more up to date information on tracking the progress of refugee applications.

The Holy Name sponsorship committee remains committed to getting our family through the process and hopefully on a plane to Toronto. We are in regular e-mail and skype contact with the family. Everyone is discouraged at the time this is taking but we must remain optimistic and patient. Our settlement counsellor, Khalid, may travel to Amman Jordan in November. His mother-in-law and sister-in-law are also refugees there, waiting for their applications to be processed. Khalid and his wife plan to visit their family in Amman, and if he does go, he will try and meet our family as well. This is all part of our ongoing efforts to build a relationship with our family.

If you have any questions for the committee, please get in touch. E-mail us at Fulfilling the ShareLife mission in our community . . .

They have ears, but do not hear (Psalm 115:6)

There are many people in our society who suffer from disabilities that affect their daily living. At Silent Voice, the deaf community can access services to help both them and their families cope with their situation.

Tavis was a student who, with his mother's encouragement, participated in the basketball fun day for the deaf community hosted by Silent Voice, a ShareLife funded agency. Soon after, he joined a sports team for the deaf, and helped host sports clinics and events with the support of our agency. Tavis was eventually hired as a counselor for the Silent Voice Sign Language Summer Day Camp. Today, he says 'I want to be a role model for deaf kids and I'm grateful for how much Silent Voice has changed my life.

Last year, Silent Voice provided services to over 750 people in the deaf community, helping families to communicate with their deaf child, and improving access to services and creating a sense of belonging among the deaf community.

Your support for ShareLife has helped to make this possible . . . you have worked wonders!
