PARISH OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE
BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, TORONTO, ONTARIO

CHRIST IS KING!

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. As we bring the Church's year of praise and worship to a close, we acknowledge Jesus as Lord. We submit our minds and hearts to Him in the mystery of the Eucharist and in the nitty gritty of everyday life.

PRAY WITH THE SAINTS

Monday, November 22nd is the Feast of St. Cecilia, virgin & martyr.

Wednesday, November 24th is the Feast of St. Andrew Dung-Lac, priest and companions, martyrs.

Join us in prayer in communion with these great saints and all saints in heaven at the 8:00AM and 12:30PM Masses on weekdays, and 9:00AM Mass on Saturday.

MORE ABOUT PURGATORY

Catholics believe that God's mercy is so great, his desire to save so strong, and the infinite merit of Christ's death on the cross for sinners so powerful, that it extends beyond the boundaries of death. Purgatory is God's saving provision for those who die in the state of imperfect love. Although the name itself is not found in the Bible, there are some texts that refer to purgatory according to ancient Christian tradition. (2 Maccabees 12:46; 2 Corinthians 3:11-15.).

I am with you always

BYZANTINE PRAYER FOR THE DECEASED

God of the spirits and of all flesh, who have trampled death and annihilated the devil and given life to your world, may you yourself, O Lord, grant to the soul of your deceased servant N., rest in a place of light, a verdant place, a place of freshness, from where suffering, pain and cries are far removed. Do You, O good and compassionate God forgive every fault committed by him in word, work or thought because there is no man who lives and does not sin. You alone are without sin and your justice is justice throughout the ages and your word is truth. Since you, O Christ our God, are the resurrection, the life and the repose of your deceased servant N., we give you glory together with your un-begotten Father and your most holy, good and life-creating Spirit, now and always and forever and ever.

Amen!
