MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

HELP STOP EUTHANASIA

Have you written your letter to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Justice, or your local MP? The pernicious Supreme Court ruling will become law unless brave members of parliament have the courage to invoke the Notwithstanding clause. Working wonders in our livelihoods ...

“My worst day clean is better than my best day using,” exclaims Suzanne, as she shares the details of her past use of drugs and other substance abuse. “I was on medication constantly to deal with the side effects and was a chronic pain patient for 35 years... With the support of Catholic Family Services, I was able to finally kick the habit.” The positive influence of CFS program supervisor Valerie Anderson and encouragement from other professional staff gave Suzanne the courage to try again. Over 79,000 individuals received help in getting their lives back on track through ShareLife-supported family services programs.

AT THE BOOKSTALL

NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART

A wonderfully produced book of Catholic (and I mean CATHOLIC) poetry by Anna Rist is available at the bookstall for only $20. It is not light verse, and there is not a limerick in the bunch, but for aficionados of deep, serious thought artistically presented this is a gem.
