MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

FEAST OF BLESSED JUVENAL ANCINA OF THE ORATORY

There will be an English Mass with music in honour of Blessed Juvenal Ancina on Monday, August 30 at 5:30 p.m.

In his twenties Blessed Juvenal occupied the chair of medicine at Turin, treated the poor free of charge, and had chess and the writing of poetry as hobbies. Though he was regularly in the presence of the dying and a frequent attendant at funerals, the young doctor, listening one day to the chanting of the Dies Irae, was overwhelmed by the realization that after death comes judgment.

He seriously thought of becoming a Carthusian, but Saint Philip Neri persuaded him to enter his Oratory instead. Ordained at thirty-six, he wrought marvels in Naples and Rome. One of his practical measures was a deposit with a barber to whom he would send anyone with unkempt hair or beard. He ran off for five months while three bishoprics stood empty, but several years later the Pope ordered him to accept the see of Saluzzo. Before long he was poisoned by a friar whom he had rebuked for scandalous living. He died in 1604.

In his deliberations he would never be hurried; "Noli urgere", he would say to those who pressed him to come quickly to a decision; for he had made his own that maxim of his holy Father St. Philip, that wise resolutions require three things - prayer, counsel, and time. And he would add: "Funiculus triplex difficile rumpitur". (A threefold cord is not easily broken). When he had to decide any grave matter he never trusted his own judgment, but called together all the officials of his court, and asked their opinions, before he decided on what, before God, seemed to him the most expedient.

Living the Gospel

by helping young families succeed

Camila was attending programs at Rose of Sharon Services for Young Mothers when she and her daughter were kicked out of the family home. As counsellors helped her search for an affordable apartment, she became pregnant a second time. Despite these challenges, Camila attended every program available to her at Rose of Sharon. At the end of the year, she walked out a stronger woman with a plan to achieve the life she wants for herself and her daughters. At ShareLife-funded agencies that assist young mothers, over 1,000 clients like Camila receive support for their new families each year.

October 3 and October 31

are the remaining ShareLife Sundays for this year.

Please give generously.

Vocation Discernment

Our second Scripture reading reminds us that "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father ...". God's gifts should prompt a response of gratitude, which should be the basis of our daily lives. If you feel God is offering you the gift of priesthood, religious life or diaconate, and you wish to respond generously, trusting in God, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997, or speak to one of the priests in the parish. email vocations@vocation.ca Visit the vocations website at www.vocationtoronto.ca.

Wednesdays have traditionally been associated with Saint Joseph.

In line with this tradition, we will be saying a Mass of Saint Joseph on Wednesdays of this year, whenever there is no other Saint assigned for that Wednesday. In practice, this will mean that we will have a Mass of Saint Joseph on Sept. 1 & 22, and Oct. 27 of this year.
