MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

RCIA Classes

Weekly classes in the Catholic faith for adults are starting up again beginning Monday, September 14th at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall of Holy Family Church. They are intended for inquirers, for those intending to be baptized or received into the Catholic Church, and also for Catholics who would like to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ through a deeper understanding of their faith. Everyone is welcome and there is no fee and no pressure. Please email Br. Alexander at 6paulg@gmail.com if you're interested.

Beirut

If you are able, please consider helping those in Beirut. The Archdiocese of Toronto will send donations to the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA), a papal agency with extensive on-the-ground networks in Lebanon. CNEWA staff are currently working to send food, water, medical supplies and hygiene products to Beirut. Spiritual and psychological support will also be provided to those who lost everything in a blink of an eye. Later, CNEWA will rebuild housing and help re-establish those who lost their livelihoods in this disaster.

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- ❖ Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website (click on the "Donate Now" button at the top of the page): www.archtoronto.org
- ❖ By phone through the Development Office – 416-934-3411
- ❖ Through the parish, making cheques payable to: Parish Name – Lebanon Relief Effort – Disaster Relief

The people of Lebanon – who were already dealing with the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and hosting almost one million Syrian refugees – need our assistance. It is at times like these when we are called to respond in a special way to our Christian mission to love our neighbour.

FORMED

Take advantage of this electronic resource – movies, catechetical materials, and much, much more. If you are new to Formed, you can go to <https://formed.org/signup> & find our parish.

Registration for Mass

The weekday and Saturday morning schedule remains the same as before the lockdown. There is no need to register for these Masses. But we encourage you to read to consult the Oratory's Covid protocol page before coming. There is a need to register for the Saturday evening and all Sunday Masses. The registration process is explained on the same page as above

School Parking Lot Closed to the Public

The parking lot to the north of the church belongs to the school. Due to the pandemic, the School Board has ruled that all school property is to be closed to public use.

Masks Required by City By-Law

As of July 7, masks are required by the city by-law for attendees at Mass. Please bring a mask with you. When you come up for Communion, you may take off the mask at the altar rail. Because of the distance from the congregation, the priests will not wear the mask at the altar but will wear them for distributing Communion.

Renovatio: Construction Begins

Renovatio has been progressing well, with construction of the new seminary building in full swing after the demolitions in June. Following excavation, the construction team has moved on to building up the underlying architecture, and concrete has been poured. In addition to the new building, some interior renovations are also in progress.

AUGUST 31: TRANSFERRED FEAST OF BLESSED JUVENAL ANCINA OF THE ORATORY

There will be an English Mass with music in honour of Blessed Juvenal Ancina on Monday, August 31 at 5:30 p.m.

In his twenties Blessed Juvenal occupied the chair of medicine at Turin, treated the poor free of charge, and had chess and the writing of poetry as hobbies. Though he was regularly in the presence of the dying and a frequent attendant at funerals, the young doctor, listening one day to the chanting of the Dies Irae, was overwhelmed by the realization that after death comes judgment.

He seriously thought of becoming a Carthusian, but Saint Philip Neri persuaded him to enter his Oratory instead. Ordained at thirty-six, he wrought marvels in Naples and Rome. One of his practical measures was a deposit with a barber to whom he would send anyone with unkempt hair or beard. He ran off for five months while three bishoprics stood empty, but several years later the Pope ordered him to accept the see of Saluzzo. Before long he was poisoned by a friar whom he had rebuked for scandalous living. He died in 1604.

In his deliberations he would never be hurried; “Noli urgere,” he would say to those who pressed him to come quickly to a decision; for he had made his own that maxim of his holy Father St. Philip, that wise resolutions require three things - prayer, counsel, and time. And he would add: “Funiculus triplex difficile rumpitur.” (A threefold cord is not easily broken). When he had to decide any grave matter he never trusted his own judgment, but called together all the officials of his court, and asked their opinions, before he decided on what, before God, seemed to him the most expedient.

First Friday – September 4. There will be a Holy Hour this Friday evening from 8:00 - 9:00 pm. Come spend an hour with our Eucharistic Lord. You will come away refreshed and renewed.

Faith and trust are rooted in our hearts. Faith and trust guide us.

In the time of need, it's your faith and trust that guides you to the comfort of your Parish.
