MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART

A wonderfully produced book of Catholic (and I mean CATHOLIC) poetry by Anna Rist is available at the bookstall for only $20. It is not light verse, and there is not a limerick in the bunch, but for aficionados of deep, serious thought artistically presented this is a gem.

VOCATION DISCERNMENT

Before the Ascension, Jesus tells His Apostles not to leave Jerusalem - to wait, to pray for the Holy Spirit to show them God's will for their future. Where is the Holy Spirit leading you? If you think God is offering you the grace of a vocation in His Church, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or speak to one of the priests in the parish or email vocations@vocations.ca. Visit the vocations website at www.vocationstoronto.ca.

Jesu, Redemption all divine

Jesu, Redemption all divine,
 Whom here we love, för whom we pine,
 God, working out Creation's plan,
 And, in the latter time, made Man.

What love of thine was that, which led^
 To take our woes upon thy head,
 And pangs and cruel death to bear,
 To ransom us from death's despair!

To thee hell's gate gave ready way,
 Demanding there his captive prey:
 And now, in pomp and victor's pride,
 Thou sittest at the Father's side.

Let very mercy force thee still^
 To spare us, conqu'ring all our ill;
 And granting that we ask, on high^
 With thine own face to satisfy.

Be thou our joy and thou our guard,
 Who art to be our great reward:
 Our glory and our boast in thee
 For ever and for ever be. Amen
