MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

Life Chain Today! -- Sunday, 2 to 3 p.m.

We need many to witness to the sanctity of life, in this peaceful, quiet, and prayerful event. Our intersection is King and Jameson. Signs will be provided.

PLEASE PRAY FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Adult Catechism (RCIA) Classes. Weekly classes in the Catholic faith for adults are held Mondays at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall. Classes are also live-streamed over Zoom. If you're interested in being baptized or received into the Catholic Church, please email Fr. Alexander at 6paulg@gmail.com to set up a meeting and begin the process.

Bible Study Classes are held every Tuesday in person and online at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall. If you are not already signed up and would like to take part, please send an email to mail@oratory-toronto.org.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

FOR INDIGENOUS HEALING & RECONCILIATION

This year's National Day for Truth and Reconciliation took place last Friday, September 30. Cardinal Collins presided at a Mass with participation from Indigenous members of the community.

The Archdiocese of Toronto will also hold a special collection to support the Indigenous Healing and Reconciliation Fund. Envelopes are being distributed this weekend, and the collection will be taken up next Sunday, October 9. The fund will support both local and national programs proposed by Indigenous communities to nurture the ongoing reconciliation journey.

Funds will support culture and language revitalization, education and community building, healing and reconciliation for communities and families, as well as dialogue involving Indigenous elders, spiritual leaders and youth, with a focus on Indigenous spirituality and culture.

The Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation fund is part of a national effort announced by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Bishops of Canada have made a $30-million collective financial commitment to support healing and reconciliation initiatives among Indigenous Peoples. The archdiocese will contribute six million dollars towards the national pledge.
