Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

2021 Church Envelopes & 2020 Tax Receipts

Please make sure you pick up your Offertory Envelopes and Tax Receipts as soon as possible. Call the Office (905-354-7451) to arrange for pick up during the week. They are in the sacristy, to the left of the altar, if you are here at Mass on the weekends. Many thanks.

August 22nd 21st Sunday

In the Book of Joshua today, Joshua calls the tribes of Israel together to renew their covenant with God. He challenges those who have wandered (worshipping false gods) to come back to the One True God. He says, not to forget what God has done for you... "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." We must keep Christ at the center of our lives and families, lest we follow those in Joshua's day, who worshipped and served false gods. We are living in a challenging time. We must do everything we can to keep our families together... to keep them holy and faith-filled. We must pass on the faith to our children and grandchildren. And that's best done by living the example of Christ. This is a good week to pray for all who have responsibilities for the faith development of the younger generation, especially parents, grandparents, godparents, teachers, catechists and parishes. Do our young people see us living the faith that we profess here in the church week after week? Every family event and activity is an opportunity to witness to our Joshua-like faith, to say in one way or another, "As for me and my household we will serve the Lord."

August 29th 22nd Sunday

There's a line in the reading from James' letter today that really jumps out! "Be doers of the word, and not merely hearers..." That's a challenge and call for all of us. James goes on to say that "Religion that is pure and undefiled before God is 'to care for orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unstained by the world!'" Wow! How can that be translated for us who come in and out through the church doors week after week? It's one thing to hear God's Word... but does it get translated into my life? Does it get put into action? This is a call to bring the presence of Christ to the world. Don't just hear Christ ... act as Christ. Don't just discuss the love of God ... do the love of God. And according to James, that means tending to the orphans and widows. Who are they? In sacred scripture, it refers to the most vulnerable in society. It's the same today. The vulnerable are all around us. They include the marginalized, the poor, the oppressed, the hungry, the immigrant, the lonely, the ill, the abused... and the list goes on! When we care for these, we are friends of God, doers of God's word. None of us can change the world, or even remove all the stain from the world. But we don't have to add to it either! I think we remain unstained by the world when we put love out there. And we do that by reaching out our hands and our hearts to the needy. St. John of the Cross said, "Put love where there's no love and you'll find love!" What a way to make a difference in the world! May God open our ears to hear His calling and give us the determination to respond joyfully to His mission in the world. Have a blessed week.

Congratulations and best wishes to
Lena Paolin on the celebration of her 100th Birthday.
May God continue to bless her with good health and happiness!

Congratulations and best wishes to

who were recently baptized

Help the Homeless

Our parish has been reaching out to the homeless on the streets and in a local encampment during the past 3 months. Thanks to all of you who have been bringing food, drinks, snacks and cards for the homeless. If we can quench someone's thirst, or fill their hunger, then we are doing what Jesus asked. If you wish to donate $10 Tim Horton's Cards or $10 McDonald's cards, this will ensure that our homeless can get a hot breakfast or an evening dinner. We have plenty of clothing, toiletries, sheets etc. on hand right now. God bless and stay safe! - Fr. Gerard

Mass Intentions

We have openings in our Daily Mass Intention Book for weekdays in 2021. The greatest gift we can give to our deceased loved ones is to have them remembered at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. A Mass intention is $10 and can be dropped off at the Parish Office, or called in. A Mass can also be offered for a Living Intention or for a particular cause.

Little Flower Society Cards

Did you know that St. Patrick Parish Office has Mass Cards in stock from the Carmelite's Little Flower Society? We have Healing Mass Cards, Living Intentions, Five-Year Memorial Cards, and also Perpetual Memorial Cards. By using those cards, you not only comfort a family member or friend, but you also support the mission of the Carmelites, our Carmelite Vocation Efforts, and our Carmelite Formation Programs in several countries.

Are you tired of living alone? Consider Mount Carmel Home in St. Catharines. A retirement home operated by the Carmelite Sisters, offering assisted living in an affordable and caring family tradition. Care services include meals, housekeeping and medication management. If interested please call 905-685-9155 for a tour.

Catholic Marriage Tribunal... If you are considering remarriage in the Catholic Church or hoping to enter a marriage with someone previously married, please speak to a priest, or contact the St. Catharines Catholic Marriage Tribunal at 905-687-8817 or tribunal@saintcd.com.

!!!Project Share Needs our Help!!!

Food donations are at their lowest from June to August! We are asked to do all we can to help the local hungry through this challenging period. The most needed food items include peanut butter; protein items such as canned tuna, salmon, chicken, ham; and canned beans, pasta sauce, baby food and formula; cereals. Lord, when did we see you hungry?

Please take time to look at the back of our Parish Bulletin! These local advertisers pay for the printing/publishing of our bulletin. Let's do everything we can to patronize them, and let them know that you saw their AD here! If there's other family businesses within the parish that would like to advertise, call the company listed on the back of the Bulletin!
