Dear Friends in Christ:

In our scripture this Sunday we have two public readings from the Law and the Prophets, one from Ezra and one from Jesus! Each is dramatic scene, and we can't help but feel the excitement of the listeners.

In the Book of Nehemiah, Ezra is reading from the Law of Moses to the returned exiles. This takes place at the Water Gate in Jerusalem. The people listen with understanding, and the readings are interpreted for them. The people are so deeply moved that they fall on their faces to worship the Lord, and they weep. Nehemiah reminded them that this is a holy day and a cause for celebration! He encouraged them to share with those who have nothing.

Five centuries later, in Nazareth, the people are not in exile but they are under the yoke of the Romans. They still long for a Messiah. They do the customary thing, go to the synagogue to hear the Law and the Prophets proclaimed! Now, Jesus had been baptized by John, had called his disciples to follow him, and even wrestled with Satan in the desert. He returns home to Nazareth, knowing who he is, and what his mission from God is. With the assurance of a prophet, Jesus read from Isaiah, those powerful, familiar passages of the Servant Song. He proclaimed his mission, here in the town where he grew up: he has come for the poor, the captives, the blind, the oppressed. It is an electrifying moment when he says, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Twenty centuries later, these words place the same demands on us. St. Paul tells us in our second reading that all of us baptized have a place in Jesus' mission and a role to play! The passage from Isaiah that Jesus makes his own, is not only referring to the ministry of Jesus, but also the ministry and mission for all of us. We are the ones to go out there and bring good news to the poor; liberate the poor, the captives, the blind, the oppressed. We, as baptized Christians, have the power to fulfill this scripture passage in our hearing! Maybe this week we can each do one thing for one person... to put flesh on these readings.

Fr. Gerard

"Poverty calls us to sow hope. . . . Poverty is the flesh of the poor Jesus, in that child who is hungry, in the one who is sick, in those unjust social structures." (Pope Francis)

REFUGEE UPDATE

We are still awaiting the arrival of our first refugee family, Ayman, Suzyi and Stephanie (4)! Hopefully they will arrive soon, and begin their transition among us. Our other application (family of 4) has been received and is awaiting official approval (Bassem, Alma, Celena (7) and Alexandr (6)). Once we know the exact sizes of the 4 adults and 3 children we will publish it in the bulletin. God bless you for your ongoing support.
