FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Weekly Gospel Reflection (Mt 3:1-12)

Each Advent (and Lent) we hear about repentance. In today's Gospel John the Baptist calls for repentance three times. The word repent is a translation of the Greek word, metanoia; it means a total change of the heart and mind.

As presented in the Gospel, repentance is not primarily a personal decision to better oneself; it is rather a response of a person to the prior experience of God's mercy and kindness. Ultimately, it is not the power of our own will that changes us; it is an experience of being loved and forgiven that motivates us to change our life in a meaningful way.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, December 8, Mass at 12:15 pm

The Dogma of Immaculate Conception proclaimed by Pope Pius IX in 1854 states that Mary was conceived free from original sin: "The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ ... preserved immune from all stain of original sin." Mary was granted this extraordinary privilege because she was to bear and bring up Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Today's feast speaks also about each of us. St. Paul teaches: "[God] chose us in [Christ], before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish" (Eph 1:4). Each of us is called and capable to be 'holy and without blemish'; it is our truest destiny and God's desire for each of us.
