1) Many thanks to all of you for your enthusiastic support for both Fr. Tavis and I last weekend, at the beginning of our ministry and service at the parish. This is a testimony to the love and pride you have for your spiritual home. 2) I invite you to join me at an installation celebration next Sunday during the 8:30am Mass when the Archbishop will preside and he will be the homilist. 3) Please consider joining me in supporting the Archbishop's Dinner for a good cause – Action Life and Bruyere Continuing Care. Interested participants will be given a tax receipt for the amount that they donate. Further details are in this bulletin. 4) I am very encouraged that many of you are actively participating in the mission of the church through your involvement in the life of the parish. If there are newcomers or people who have not as yet taken an active part in the ongoing liturgical, educational, social, communal and outreach areas of the parish, please be sure that you are always welcome to exercise your gifts in the service of others. Fr.
