GOSPEL REFLECTION-Aug. 15

Luke 1:39-56

Wouldn't it be frustrating to have good news, yet no one to share it with? In the telling, good news gets even better, because a friend is responding to it. Luke tells us the beautiful story of Mary sharing with Elizabeth the news of her pregnancy. Elizabeth immediately recognizes that Mary is "the mother of my Lord" and she praises Mary's complete faith in God's word. Bursting with joy, Mary sings her victory song, the Magnificat: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord."

Discussion Questions: It's easy to trust God when everything goes smoothly. It's harder to trust in times of trouble or hardship or change. Where do you need to trust God more? Trust means we trust God to lead us to the next right step to take. It means trusting God will help us take it!

GOSPEL REFLECTION-Aug. 22ND

When someone asks Jesus how many will be saved, he answers by using the image of the narrow door. Those who do not remain faithful to Him will be left outside. Jesus is warning people of faith not to take their salvation for granted. Just because we worship every weekend, we cannot assume that we can squeeze through the narrow door. We may be surprised to discover that some who seem less worthy will enter the kingdom before us.

Discussion Questions: Jesus reminds us that we are not to judge others as "worthy" of the kingdom or not. Our human judgment is faulty, we only see so much. God sees the entire person, heart and soul, past and present and future. The question is: where do YOU want to be with God? How can YOU stay close to Jesus?

THINK OF HOME

When you have many kinds of troubles, you should be full of joy, because you know that these troubles test your faith, and this will give you patience. James 1:2

God didn't say, "If you have many kinds of troubles"...he said, "When you have many kinds of troubles..."Troubles are part of the package. Betrayals are part of our troubles. Don't be surprised when betrayals come. Don't look for fairness here—look instead where Jesus looked. While going through hell, Jesus kept His eyes on heaven. While surrounded by enemies He kept His mind on His Father. While abandoned on earth, He kept His heart on home. "In the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of God, the Powerful One, and coming on clouds in the sky" (Matt. 26:64)
When all of the earth turns against you, all of heaven turns toward you. To keep your balance in a crooked world.....think of home.
